

APPLICATION FOR AREA COORDINATOR

Thank you for your interest in becoming an Area Coordinator for PVE Neighborhood Watch. This is a key role where you can help your neighbors and Block Captains to work together to “See Something—Say Something.”

As a Neighborhood Watch Area Coordinator, you work with Block Captains, neighbors in your Area and the PVE Police Department. Your role includes participating in PVE NW Board meetings, obtaining, interviewing and supporting Block Captains, helping with PVE NW events, providing updates to the Membership Chair on Block Captains that are added or deleted and distributing crime prevention and disaster preparedness information when received from the Police Department. There will be a PVE NW Board Member who will support you to address questions and provide templates and ideas.

As an Area Coordinator and representative of PVE Neighborhood Watch, a certain level of trust by the community is paramount. For this reason applicants are required to complete the requested information and sign the form below. A PVE NW Board Member will contact you to follow-up.
