

APPLICATION FOR BLOCK CAPTAIN

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Block Captain for PVE Neighborhood Watch. This is a key role where you can help your neighbors work together to “See Something—Say Something.”

As a Neighborhood Watch Block Captain, you work with the neighbors on your block, your Area Coordinator and the Palos Verdes Estates Police Department. Your role includes scheduling at least one meeting a year with your neighbors, maintaining a current roster and distributing crime prevention and disaster preparedness information when received from the Police Department or PVE Neighborhood Watch. Your Area Coordinator will be there to support you with ideas, templates and to help you to coordinate police resources to participate in your Block Meeting.

As a Block Captain and representative of PVE Neighborhood Watch, a certain level of trust by neighbors is paramount. For this reason applicants are required to complete the requested information and sign the form below.
